

28 May 2015

Dear SSWG member,

INCREASED VIGILANCE DURING THE 28th SOUTHEAST ASIAN (SEA) GAMES 2015

SEA Games is a prolific regional event which will attract local and foreign participants. With the increase in visitors coming into Singapore during this period, there is a need to remain vigilant as Singapore remains an attractive target for possible terrorist attacks.

2 Though there is no information of specific threat to Singapore, SPF is monitoring the situation closely and we have enhanced our existing security measures around the island. We will calibrate our security measures accordingly.

3 Police would like to reiterate the importance for premises owners to remain vigilant and enhance security at your premises. SSWG members should remind all staff to look out for suspicious articles left unattended in your premises, or suspicious characters loitering in/near your premises taking notes or filming the premises. Premises owners are also advised to ensure that your security measures are comprehensive and well maintained and your security personnel, including those carrying out CCTV surveillance remain watchful and alert. In addition, we advise that the following measures be adopted:

- a) Enhance high-visibility patrols by security guards within your premises to project greater deterrence;
- b) Remind tenants and staff as they go about their business to be watchful and to highlight to management if members of public ask about emergency protocols or where the AHUs etc. are located; and
- c) Conduct in-house security and contingency exercises to validate the readiness of staff and employees in responding to security threats.

4 You are strongly encouraged to conduct security checks on persons entering your premises and to clarify further with those deemed suspicious on their reasons for being in and around your premises.

5 Should you detect any suspicious activity/article/character in your vicinity, please do not hesitate to contact our Police hotline at 999 for assistance. Alternatively, you can also contact us at the following email address: SPF\_SSWG@spf.gov.sg. Together, we can make our surrounding a safe and secure one for everyone.

Yours faithfully,
