A vertical collage of various spices and herbs, including peppercorns, ginger, garlic, chili peppers, and ground spices, arranged on a dark wooden surface. The image is a high-quality, artistic photograph featuring a variety of fresh and dried ingredients. At the top, a wooden pepper mill is surrounded by peppercorns. Below it, there's a whole head of garlic, a piece of ginger, and a dried chili pepper. A small wooden spoon holds a mix of colorful peppercorns. Further down, a bowl of bright red chili powder sits next to a bowl of yellow mustard seeds. A wooden spoon is filled with a vibrant yellow turmeric powder. Other elements include a bowl of fennel seeds, a jar of red chili flakes, a bowl of brown mustard seeds, a small dish of sliced almonds, and a bundle of dried roots. The background is a dark, textured wooden surface, and the overall composition is a rich, detailed display of culinary ingredients.
