A vertical collage of various spices and herbs, including peppercorns, ginger, garlic, chili peppers, and ground spices, arranged on a dark wooden surface. The image is a high-quality, artistic photograph featuring a variety of fresh and dried ingredients. At the top, a wooden pepper mill is surrounded by peppercorns. Below it, there's a whole head of garlic, a piece of ginger, and a dried chili pepper. A small wooden spoon holds a mix of colorful peppercorns. In the center, a small bowl is filled with yellow mustard seeds, and another spoon holds a vibrant red powder. To the right, a small bowl contains dried fennel seeds. Below that, a bowl of bright yellow turmeric powder is shown. A large wooden spoon in the middle holds a mound of yellow powder. To the right, a glass jar is filled with brown mustard seeds. At the bottom, there are more dried chili peppers, a small bowl of sliced almonds, and a bundle of dried roots. The entire scene is set against a dark, textured wooden background, creating a rich and aromatic visual.
